Leavenworth woman convicted in February shooting

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. — Nicole L. Price, 23, of Leavenworth, has been convicted of one count of attempted aggravated robbery and one count of aggravated battery after pleading no contest during a hearing Sept. 9, 2026.

The charges stem from a shooting incident that occurred Feb. 20, 2026.

Sentencing is scheduled for Nov. 4, 2026.

Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson said, “Our office and our community takes gun violence seriously. They are not toys.”
