CASE NUMBER: LV-2022-CR-000246

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. – A 42-year-old Leavenworth man has been convicted of charges related to the killing of a woman and theft of a vehicle.

On June 18, 2024, Terrance O. George pleaded no contest to charges of Voluntary Manslaughter and Theft of Property.

According to court records, on June 5, 2022, George used a knife and stabbed a man before taking the man's truck. Later that day, George was found and taken into custody. While following up on the vehicle theft and stabbing investigation, police officers found a woman's body inside George's apartment. During the investigation, it was determined that the woman died of blunt force trauma.

Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson said, "Voluntary manslaughter can involve the intentional killing of a human being committed upon a sudden quarrel or in the heat of passion."

A sentencing hearing is scheduled for July 24, 2024.
